

Boilermaker Road Race

So you're registered for the Boilermaker, and whether it's your first race or your 48th, we have a lot of new information to keep you informed and make your race day as smooth as possible.

To avoid bombarding you with emails over the next 37 days, we've created a weekly "Mile Marker" newsletter to help you navigate your Boilermaker experience in a fun format without overwhelming you with information. We will wait until race week to provide anything you might have missed 🤔

We will be sending this out. At a high level, some highlights to expect include sneak peeks at the expo experience, what to look out for at the Post-Race Party, information on where you can park, and updates on street closures and how to navigate to the nearest porta-john.

Better yet, we've started a podcast to help cover all this and more! Click the link to listen to the Mile Marker podcast and help us count down the days until Boilermaker Sunday.

Listen On Spotify

JUST ASK JIM

Click here to submit questions to our
legendary race director
to be answered in future
publications*

*answers may contain very bad Dad Jokes

Walk

Expo

Kids Run

RUNNER'S TIP OF THE WEEK

“Don't get your shoes wet near the water stations or sprinklers!!”

- Corinna Bewick

Did you know the Boilermaker is this year's PRRO Championship?

The 2025 Boilermaker 15K is the proud host of the PRRO (Professional Road Running Organization) Championship, where top athletes from across the country compete for national glory and big-time cash. This elite showdown brings together winners from some of the most prestigious non-marathon road races in the U.S.—including the Gate River Run, Cherry Blossom 10 Mile, Bix 7, and Bloomsday Run—to battle it out on the streets of Utica. The stakes? A PRRO Super Bonus for any qualified runner who wins it all!

So what does that mean for you? You'll be running alongside some of the best in the nation and soaking in the electric energy of a true championship event. It's the same Boilermaker you know and love—legendary crowd support, epic finish line party—but with an extra shot of adrenaline and star power.

See The Standings

Proudly Presented By

